

STAR WARS

Meanwhile, Obi-wan and Vader were in the middle of a fierce lightsaber duel. Obi-wan had disabled the ship's engines so Rieekan could board the it. He swung but Vader blocked and front-flipped, only to receive a cut on his left shoulder. Using his chance, Obi-wan force pushed Vader at a wall, then, threw his lightsaber at some debris hanging from the roof making it fall onto his former apprentice.

At the same time, Rieekan and his men had reached the door to the bridge to of the stardestroyer, and had began to blast it. Inside, the stormtroopers were aiming at the door, when it went up in flames and fell down. Rebels ran in and began to fire. "Let's find the self-destruct mechanism!" Rieekan shouted as he blasted a stormtrooper. Just then, forty of the best Imperial soldiers dashed in, blasted some of the Rebels, and forced Rieekan to surrender. Suddenly, Obi-wan leaped in and began to attack the stormtroopers. Rieekan and Wedge grabbed their blasters, and began to assist Obi-wan in the fight. Soon, with the help of Rieekan's troops, they had won.

"So how do we destroy this thing?" Wedge asked.

"I know how," said one of the pilots called Biggs Darklighter. "I was once an Imperial pilot."

"Okay Biggs," said Obi-wan, "you show us how to destroy it, and then we get out of here."

"Alright," said said Biggs as he stepped forward and began to dial some numbers. Once he was done, he said "We have five minutes to get out of here!"

When the Rebels arrived in the garbage chute, stormtroopers were awaiting them. Rieekan and Obi-wan held off the stormtroopers, while the other members or the squad escaped, but once they where gone Obi-wan was hit by a stun bolt. Thinking fast, Rieekan dragged Obi-wan's unconscious body into his x-wing, told his astrodroid to take him to the Tantive IV, and finally, escaped in Obi-wan's CIS strike bomber three seconds before the super stardestroyer blew up.

On the Tantive IV, Obi-wan had summoned Rieekan and Biggs. When they arrived, Obi-wan addressed Rieekan first and said, "Carlist Rieekan, you have demonstrated the bravery of a Jedi knight, and for that, I give you the rank of commander."

"Thank you, Sir," said Rieekan.

Then Obi-wan turned to Biggs and said "And you Biggs Darklighter, in destroying the Imperial star destroyer you have earned the rank of lieutenant."

950 Years before Episode 1, Part 2

by Ho Jeong, 4th grade (continued from the last paper)

"Captain, Lord Revan is back," Jack and Tom said, touching their lightsabers.

"Ask him if he has captured those Jedi knights. I heard that their uncles are dead because of a disease. Those Jedis are weak without their uncles' protection."

"Oh yeah? Take this!" Jack activated his lightsaber and tried to attack the sith captain.

"No! We'll only get hurt! He's powerful!!" Tom warned him.

"Huh? I should have known. I saw a Jedi starfighter and I thought it was a ship that Lord Revan had captured!" The sith captain took out his lightsaber and threw it at the alarm. Then, the alarm rang.

"Let's get out of here, now!!" Tom said as he flipped up and went into the starfighter. Their starfighter turned upside down and got out of the Sith's base.

"Uncles, are you watching us? Did you see what we did? We trained by ourselves. Isn't that wonderful? I miss you guys," Jack thought.

"Open the gate. We are the Jedis," Tom said and looked at Jack. He was already talking with Yoda.

"Yoda, So did you find a shelter for us?" Jack asked Yoda. Yoda held his thumbs up. Yoda led Tom and Jack to a forest with lots of trees.

"Get them, bring them to me!!!" Lord Revan said and pointed at the tree where Tom and Jack were. Lord Revan ordered his men to attack Tom and Jack. The sun sunk up to the other part of the world, and the time of the night came. "Now!!" All the Sith ran to the camp of the Jedis. The forest was glowing with red lights. The Siths attacked Jedis but half of their Sith men were defeated by Yoda.

"Do you see? Lord Sidious has picked the wrong army," Yoda said.

"You are wrong, you tiny little ogre!!!" The captain took his lightsaber but the blade did not come out nor made any sound.

"Wrong? Oh no~ Jedis always win. And sorry about that I sliced your handle into two pieces," Jack said and grinned. "Now, a final touch!!" Then, the human- eating-humans ran down from their old house.

"Now! Run!!" Luckily, all the Jedis survived. Then, one of the Sith shooters aimed at captain, accidentally. And the Captain fell down.

950 years later.....

Yoda found Qui-Gon in the basement. And the story continues on and on....
